School

Edubridge International School (EIS) Mumbai, is a CIS Member School that offers the IB Primary Years Programme, the IB Middle Years Programme, and IB Diploma Programme. We are a co-educational, day school, that provides an international curriculum for those families who seek an outstanding international school in South Mumbai. Our faculty engage in renowned international school practices and provide our students with a safe and inspiring atmosphere to learn and grow. EIS teachers work collaboratively with students to instil in them vital skills and strengths necessary to tackle any challenges that come their way with perseverance, integrity and determination. Our students have the opportunity to work closely with their teachers and develop a range of skills that include creativity, critical thinking and problem solving, essential in the 21st century through the best classroom resources available for international schools.

Student Opportunities

At EIS, we believe strongly in the holistic development of each child. We cater to every student's academic and non-academic interests alike. Our students, from a young age, are exposed to various extracurricular activities and they are provided with a safe and nurturing environment to hone their skills and develop their varied interests and passions.

- Our Athletics program provides students the chance to build teamwork and leadership skills through various sports that include football, basketball, table tennis, and volleyball. We also have a formal after-school program where students can learn martial arts, skating, chess, and taekwondo.
- CAS - Our students organize various social service initiatives such as beach clean-ups and newspaper drives. Students also volunteer their time to different non-profit organizations around the city such as Welfare for Stray Dogs, Angels Express Foundation and Operation Smile to name a few.

Academic Opportunity

EIS operates on a semester system, with Semester 1 from early August to end December and Semester 2 from early January to June 1st.
